Events Calendar

September 2015

Dear Neighbors,

Hope you've had a chance to rest and take some time for yourself in August. Although I haven't found the time to read a book yet (waiting for Stacy Schiff's The Witches coming out in October), I've been reading a lot of long magazine articles — which is close as I can get to summer reading! Bill McGibbon's piece about solar power investments is eye-opening. According to McGibbon, the price of solar has dropped dramatically; it's now almost as cheap as gas and coal. Price is moving quickly and energy companies are trying to protect their investments by influencing elections in Arizona, pushing renewables in Vermont, and allowing customers to sell excess solar energy back to the grid in Georgia.

Join me at the Hearing Loss Association of America's NYC Walk 4 Hearing on Sunday, September 27. The 5K / 3.1 mile walk begins at West 97th Street and Riverside Drive, and it's a great way to raise money and awareness for hearing loss, which affects 22% of New Yorkers age 45 and over. Festivities at 9am and the walk begins at 10am. Learn more.

The West Side Community Garden is hosting a free, two-day Arts and Crafts Festival with activities for kids on Saturday, September 19th and a concert, poetry, and a wine and cheese on Sunday, September 20th. Both days will feature artist wares, paintings, photographs, ceramics, jewelry, hand designed notecards, quilting, and more — a great way to start your holiday shopping! See the flyer.

I was happy to support the Movement Speaks: Interactive Dance Workshops for Older Adults, an eleven-week program that gives older adults a fun way to exercise and be social. The program is entirely free and culminates in a performance in December. The workshops take place on Wednesdays from 1:30pm-3pm, September 9-December 9 at Goddard Riverside Senior Center, 593 Columbus Avenue (btw 88th and 89th street). For more information, please call (347) 683-2691 or e-mail rebecca@dvpnyc.org. See the flyer.

Verdi Square at 72nd and Broadway is hosting free outdoor concerts on three Sundays in September: Sunday, September 13 features American Musical Theater; Sunday, September 20 has Jazz; and Sunday, September 27 is Opera. All concerts start at 5pm and last one hour. Learn more.

Business owners: don't miss a free class, Signing a Commercial Lease: What You Need to Know!, offered by the Department of Small Business Services on September 9 from 5:30pm - 8:30pm. Learn how to negotiate your lease term and build exit strategies into the lease; how to avoid signing "form" leases that favor the landlord; what strategies you can use to limit personal liability; and what to look for in the permitted use provisions. NYC Business Solutions Lower Manhattan Center, 110 William Street, 7th Floor. RSVP.

The Museum of the City of New York is offering discounted tickets to Upper West Siders to a talk on September 30th about historian Eric Foner's latest book, Gateway to Freedom: The Hidden History of the Underground Railroad (2015). The book brings to life New York City's little-known role within the underground railroad system between 1830 and 1860, drawing on a recently-unearthed record of fugitive slaves secretly kept by Sydney Howard Gay, a white New Yorker who worked with black associates in his office - a secret "station" for fugitive slaves. Use the code DIST6 to get your $10 tickets (normally $16). Buy tickets.

My office will close for Labor Day Weekend at 4pm on Wednesday, September 2 and reopen at 10am on Tuesday, September 8

Hope you find some events, listed here, that are meaningful to you.

Warmly,

Affordable Housing

Monthly Housing Clinics will resume October 2015. Please reach out to Urban Justice Center or Anna Gago in my office if you need to see someone prior to the October Housing Clinic.

Housing Conservation Coordinators (HCC) Legal Clinic

HCC offers a free legal clinic on Monday evenings from 7pm – 9pm. To meet with a volunteer attorney, visitors must call the front desk (212) 541-5996 to reserve a spot in the clinic in advance. Only the first eight callers will be able to reserve an appointment. Any New York City resident who does not qualify for HCC's legal services* can visit HCC's Legal Clinic, regardless of income or address. Our volunteer lawyers provide brief legal information, explain basic legal rights and may refer visitors to other legal resources/organizations/agencies. The Clinic is for 15-minute consultations only. You do not retain the volunteer attorney and the attorney cannot represent you or provide legal advice. While most visitors come for legal information about housing-related matters, attorneys may (at their own discretion) field questions about other basic, legal matters, as well. Visitors are asked to bring all documents relevant to their questions.

NYC Housing Connect

Looking for affordable housing? The NYC Department of Housing Preservation and Development (HPD) have developed an online portal to portal to search and apply for affordable housing opportunities in New York City called NYC Housing Connect. On the site, you can: Learn how to apply for affordable housing in New York City; View current and upcoming housing opportunities; Start, save, and complete an application for your household; Apply to housing options for which you may qualify. NYC Housing Connect seeks to simplify the application process for you. To visit the site CLICK HERE. Applying and qualifying for affordable housing can be a long process, and you are not guaranteed to receive housing. Your household must not only qualify with detailed criteria on a property-by-property basis, but you must also be selected at random in that property's lottery. Preferences noted in the advertisement will be given first consideration. For other housing resources for New York City, visit the Affordable Housing Resource Center.

NYC Housing Development Corporation

HDC finances rental properties reserved for households that meet certain income restrictions, commonly referred to as either low-income or middle-income. Each posting specifies how many of each type of apartment is available. To apply, please follow the instructions on the application information or advertisement posted for each development. All apartments are awarded through a lottery; your eligibility is determined by income. There is no application fee, facilitator, outside expediter, or broker involved in this process. Filling out the application for the specific project that is advertising available units is the ONLY way to apply for one of the apartments. See available listings.
