

FRESH FOOD FOR SENIORS

MANHATTAN BOROUGH PRESIDENT

GALE A. BREWER

WWW.MANHATTANBP.NYC.GOV

NEW YORK CITY COUNCIL MEMBER, 6TH DISTRICT

HELEN ROSENTHAL

WWW.HELENROSENTHAL.COM

Fresh, locally grown produce for

$8

Contact Marisa Maack at
(212) 873-0282, x203 or mmaack@council.nyc.gov
with questions about enrollment

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

1. How much does a food bag cost?

Each food bag costs only $8. Cash only please. EBTs, credit cards, debit cards, and checks are not accepted. You will receive a receipt.

2. Do I need to pay for more than one delivery at a time?

No, unlike other food bag programs, the Fresh Food for Seniors program requires only one order at a time.

3. How much food will I receive?

Each bag will contain 5-6 varieties of produce, depending on what is in season, such as tomatoes, spinach, corn, carrots, apples, squash, and peaches.

4. When can I place an order, and when can I pick up my food bag?

Please check in with your local senior or community center for their ordering and pick up process. If you do not belong to a Center and your building is not participating, you may order and pick up at Goddard Riverside Community Center located at 593 Columbus Ave.

See schedule details below.

Orders must be received by latest date:	For delivery date:
Wednesday, July 5 ➔ for delivery	Wednesday, July 12
Tuesday, July 18 ➔ for delivery	Wednesday, July 26
Tuesday, August 1 ➔ for delivery	Wednesday, August 9
Tuesday, August 15 ➔ for delivery	Wednesday, August 23
Tuesday, August 29 ➔ for delivery	Wednesday, September 6
Tuesday, September 12 ➔ for delivery	Wednesday, September 20
Tuesday, September 26 ➔ for delivery	Wednesday, October 4
Tuesday, October 10 ➔ for delivery	Wednesday, October 18
Tuesday, October 24 ➔ for delivery	Wednesday, November 1
Tuesday, November 7 ➔ for delivery	Wednesday, November 15

Place orders Monday and Tuesday of order week and pick up food bags at:
Goddard Riverside, 593 Columbus Avenue at 88th Street (between 1-3pm)

5. Which organizations are running this program?

The food bag program is organized by the offices of Manhattan Borough President Brewer and Council Member Rosenthal, in partnership with various Upper West Side senior centers, community centers and GrowNYC.